

A Spirit-Led Heart Manifesto

A woman with a Spirit-led heart
... trusts that God can use her, even when her knees knock
... believes that when she speaks to God, he hears
... reaches for truth as a weapon and isn't afraid to use it
... tells her story, for she has walked with Jesus
... is not lost in the valleys or on the mountaintops
... fights for others, because Jesus fought for her first
... isn't a know-it-all, though she longs to know all there is to know
... doesn't have time to be distracted by drama with no eternal value
... believes that God loves her, and freely loves him back.

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty [emancipation from bondage, true freedom].
